

HOW TO FILE A CITIZEN'S COMPLAINT

The Maitland Police Department continually strives to deliver high quality, professional police services. On occasion, citizens have complaints about the level or quality of services received or have more serious complaints about how they were treated.

All citizen complaints are taken very seriously and your complaint or concern will be given a thorough review. As a citizen, you have several options in order for your complaint to be addressed: you may come to the Maitland Police Department, 1776 Independence Lane, and speak to a supervisor. The supervisor will listen to your complaint and take the appropriate actions, documenting it as necessary on either a Supervisory Inquiry or a Citizen's Complaint Form.

Should you not wish to speak to a supervisor, you may download and fill out this form and either mail it to the attention of the Chief of Police or hand-carry it to the station in a sealed envelope marked to the attention of the Chief of Police.

When completing this form, please be as specific and thorough as possible. The more details you can provide, the better your issue can be investigated and resolved.

After the form has been received by the Chief of Police, it will be reviewed and may be assigned to an Internal Affairs investigator or supervisor for appropriate investigation.

If you have any questions, please call the Office of Professional Standards, 407-539-6224.

You have the right to make a complaint about a police officer or Department employee and have it investigated if you believe there has been improper conduct. We take allegations of employee misconduct seriously. Consequently, if the investigation reveals the complaint was made maliciously, in bad faith or with knowledge that the accusation was false, action may be taken to prosecute the complainant for making a false report. You may be asked to give a recorded, sworn statement during the investigation process.
